DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 13 November 2006 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 25 - 28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Regarding Claims 25 and 28, when considered as a whole, the claim is directed to storing nonfunctional descriptive (i.e. a client selected materials; DJ performance) material on a readable medium. It is not statutory since no requisite functionality is present to satisfy the practical application requirement.

Regarding Claim 26, the step of producing the recording is done by a human being as is evidenced by the claim and the specification. According to MPEP 2105, if the broadest reasonable interpretation of the claimed invention as a whole encompasses a human being, a rejection under U.S.C. 101 must be made.

Regarding Claim 27, claim 27 includes various means plus function language. The means for gathering and producing can be interpreted as a human being. According to MPEP 2105, if the broadest reasonable interpretation of the claimed invention as a whole encompasses a human being, a rejection under U.S.C. 101 must be made.

Further regarding Claims 25 – 28, the claims include a limitation of creating a performance using a Disc Jockey's creative, customized performance. The performance created cannot be repeated to achieve the same result, thus the invention as claimed does not produce a concrete result.

Claims 2 – 11, 13 – 19, 21, 22, 24 and 29 – 33 are rejected under the same grounds as being dependent upon claims 25 – 28.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Art Unit: 2615

Claims 25 – 28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

Claims 25 – 28 claim creating a performance using a Disc Jockey's creative, customized materials. The specification is not detailed as to how this performance is created using creative and customized materials. The performance cannot be created by one of ordinary skill in the art without the expense of undue experimentation or burden to use creative and customized materials.

Claims 2 – 11, 13 – 19, 21, 22, 24 and 29 – 33 are rejected under the same grounds as being depend upon claims 25 – 28.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 25 – 28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claims 25 – 28 claim a Disc Jockey Like performance which is indefinite.

Art Unit: 2615

Claims 2 – 11, 13 – 19, 21, 22, 24 and 29 – 33 are rejected under the same grounds as being depend upon claims 25 – 28.
